ENGL 4322 *Creative Writing ~~Course~~ Workshop. Three semester hours. (FL/SP)
This ~~advanced creative writing course is conducted as a writing workshop and is designed to deepen and refine a student's skills in a specified genre.~~ course explores current theory and creative writing techniques through the study of required readings and the application of techniques in students' own work. Genres ~~will vary from semester to semester but covered~~ will regularly include poetry, fiction, and screenwriting, with drama, children's literature, ~~and non-fiction genres, such as autobiography, will occasionally be offered~~ nonfiction, and other genres offered occasionally. The course may be repeated for credit but not more than twice in the same genre. May be repeated for credit up to four times, ~~but no genre may be repeated more than twice~~. May be taken for graduate credit if graduate student receives permission of the instructor and the chair of the department. Prerequisite: ENGL 2307 or SPAN 2307 or consent of instructor.

Justification: Changes more accurately specify the approach of the course, while the addition of "other genres" allows for more topic variation in offerings. Other changes are editorial in nature or update the course description.
