Course Objectives: The object of this course is to briefly review concepts and principles of financial accounting, and then, to learn how to analyze financial statements and reach conclusions as to a firm’s financial “health.”

Learning Outcomes:
• Students will reinforce and demonstrate their knowledge of financial accounting and generally accepted accounting principles.
• Students will learn techniques of analyzing financial statements in terms of liquidity, solvency, profitability, and owner’s needs. They will demonstrate their ability to apply
these techniques
• Students will apply their knowledge of financial statement analysis techniques to the analysis of actual company’s financial statements.
• Students will demonstrate their ability to work in teams to analyze financial statements and make a class presentation of their results.

The university is composed of a diverse student body who have a number of different religious beliefs. Reasonable accommodations will be made to allow student to practice their beliefs. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor in advance when there is a conflict between scheduled classroom activities (examinations, quizzes, etc.) and religious holidays.

Students diagnosed with ADA recognized problems should contact Dr. Yolanda Garcia, Director of Counseling (CH 312A - 326-2230). Students who have not been diagnosed with an ADA condition but feel that they might be eligible for assistance under provisions of ADA are encouraged to contact Dr. Garcia.

Special Assignments:
1. Properly annotated homework will be turned in at the examination and on the date of the final examination.

2. Presentation:
Towards the end of the course, two-person teams will make a presentation where they present their financial analysis of an actual company (which they will select). They may obtain information about their selected company from the Tompson Analytics web-site at http://tabseacct.swlearning.com or from actual company financial reports. Also, relevant information from non-financial sources will be HIGHLY valued. YOUR TASK IN YOUR PRESENTATION IS TO REPORT THE RESULTS OF AN ANALYSIS AS TO WHETHER YOU WOULD (OR WOULD NOT) RECOMMEND MAKING A SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT IN THE EQUITY SECURITIES OF YOUR SELECTED COMPANY.

You should prepare and distribute a report detailing and supporting you findings. Major sections of the report should be:

a. Introduction
b. Liquidity analyses
c. Solvency analyses
d. Profitability analyses
e. Investor analyses
f. Conclusions
