If new, provide Course Prefix, Number, Title, SCH Value, Description, prerequisite, and lecture/lab hours if applicable.  If in current catalog, copy and paste the text from the on-line catalog and indicate changes in red.

The course emphasizes the theoretical bases of digital production, trends in publicly distributed media, and the use of computers in digital video production. Included are video standards, video editing applications, and an introduction to post-production use of transitions and special effects. Students will write project proposals and shoot their own video to edit. Prerequisite/corequisite: COMM 2332 or consent of instructor. Course fee: $40

Some students may have prior knowledge of video production and/or substantial production work experience to be able to follow instruction and produce assigned projects for this course. A $40 course fee is necessary to cover the cost of preventive maintenance of equipment.
