SPAN 2320 (formerly SPAN 2300)
 Spanish Grammar and Composition.
 Three semester hours. (FL/SP/SS)
 Conducted in Spanish. The first of two basic requirements for all SPAN 3000-4000 courses.
 Students will read and comment upon short texts chosen from modern Spanish and Spanish American writers, newspapers, and magazines. Readings are chosen both to aid students to perfect their writing skills and to provide them the widest possible exposure to contemporary Hispanic culture. The course's principal objective is to ensure that students master a clear, effective, and mechanically correct prose style in Spanish. Prerequisite: SPAN 2312 or equivalent course

Justification: In order to avoid confusion it is better to have “formerly SPAN 2300” right after SPAN 2320. Due to the importance of this course in all of the undergraduate Spanish programs, it should be offered in Fall, Spring and Summer terms. This description is more appropriate and the students can know how important is this course to continue with SPAN 3000 and 4000 courses.
