SPAN 4300 Contemporary Spanish American Society in Literature. Three semester hours. Conducted in Spanish. This course examines the relationship between art and the political, historical, and social realities of the Spanish American society through fiction written by some of its most distinguished writers such as García Márquez, Allende, Vargas Llosa, Borges, Castellanos, Octavio Paz, Carlos Fuentes, etc. Prerequisite: SPAN 3323 or 3326.

Justification: It is not necessary that SPAN 2320 appears as a prerequisite because the student needs to take it before taking SPAN 3323 or SPAN 3326.
