CRIJ 5305 - Seminar on the Administration of Criminal Justice
Three semester hours. (FL)

~~This course involves applications of public administration principles and organizational theory to the unique problems of criminal justice bureaucracies. Various management approaches and proposed strategies of planned change and innovation are described and assessed.~~

This course examines organizational theories, models, and typologies for investigating and understanding individual and interpersonal dimensions and operations of criminal justice systems. Leadership and authority patterns, informal and formal communication networks, and diverse variables are examined as they impact upon organizational effectiveness and change, including program evaluation and implementation.

Prerequisites: Enrollment restricted to students currently matriculating in the MSCJ program; CRIJ 3305, CRIJ 4321, SOCI 3336 (or the equivalent).

JUSTIFICATION: This course is being added as a required course because of the importance of considering and discussing the realities of working within the criminal justice system with those who are extremely likely to seek employment within that system.
