PSYC 5112

Professional Identity Development Group

One semester hour.

Provides a small group experience focused on development of the professional counselor identity for first year students in the MACP program. In addition to discussion of professional identity development issues, students will generate group process notes and gain experience in small group processes and their evaluation. First year MACP students will meet in 6-100 minute groups with a facilitator approved by MACP faculty during the spring semester. Enrollment restricted to MACP students who have completed PSYC 5301 and 5303 in the fall semester. This experience is graded credit no credit.

JUSTIFICATION: The Class is redundant with PSYC 5315 (Group Counseling and Psychotherapy).
