Course Description:

EDIT 5360

Collaborative Design of Visual Multimedia and Print-Based Materials

Three semester hours.

This course will explore the design and development of computer generated instructional graphics, animation, and print based materials. Students will explore and evaluate the design and creation of graphical, iconic, and metaphoric information in interactive visual learning environments and a conceptual framework for understanding design and of development of visual materials. Students will experience hands-on projects using desktop print design and web based graphics as part of a multimedia design team. The objective will be a research-based project to produce an instructional package for a client.

Prerequisites: Six (6) semester hours of graduate-level EDIT coursework, or permission of instructor.
