Justification:

The course fees for all MUAP classes have not increased from $20.00 since 2004, but the costs related to them have. Also, funds available to the Department of F&PA to cover the MUAP course expenses have dwindled in the past year. We find ourselves falling short of funds for instrument repair and maintenance (costs are rising), and accompanists (pianists).

Budget:

1. Piano tuning per semester = $1275. Pianos are needed for student practice, private lessons, performance, etc. ($75.00 X 17 pianos; we have 17 pianos!).
2. Instrument (non-piano) repair and maintenance per semester = $1250. Based on the average spent by the F&PA Dept. per semester for the past few years.
3. Accompanist fees = $1250 per semester. 1 convocation performance and 1 student jury performance per semester translates into two, 30-min. rehearsals with accompanist @$25/hour X 50 music majors (who actually need accompaniment); there are 67 majors as of this semester.

TOTAL BUDGET = $3775 per semester ($1275 + $1250 + 1250)

A fee increase (from $20.00) to $30.00 will help us meet these needs associated with applied music classes:

OLD FEE: $20 fee X 67 (students) = $1340.00, which leaves a difference of $2435 ($3775-$1340) that the dept. has to cover.

NEW FEE: $30 fee X 67 (students) = $2010.00, which leaves less of a difference that the dept. has to cover: $1765.
