PSCI 4311

Constitutional Law: ~~Criminal Procedures and Civil Liberties~~

Three semester hours. A case study of American constitutional law based on the leading decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court. This course deals with the functional and federal distributions of governing authority, civil liberties, rights of the criminally accused, and civil rights. Prerequisite: Six hours of political science. (Cross-listed with PSCI 5311).

Justification: 1) The course is mislabeled as PSCI 4312 in the current catalog along with the mistaken course name extension/ or subtitle “: Criminal Procedures and Civil Liberties.” (this was left from the deleted course PSCI 4312). In addition the course description is missing part of the course description from last year’s change [2010-2011/UCC76-COAS-PSCI4311-Desc-Change].

2) We have created a new cross-listed graduate course PSCI 5311 that we want cross-listed with PSCI 4311. This step is being taken in a very select few (4) of our upper-division PSCI courses to provide graduate students with a few more options in their major/ minor course selection to make the MA in PSCI a bit more popular and option.
