Number HIST 5380 Title Historiography SCH 3

Description This seminar is concerned with the study of history as an intellectual discipline and focuses on many of the philosophical questions with which historians must grapple. The course also considers the often difficult relationship between academic and popular history and how that struggle influences our discipline. Readings and a research project will familiarize students with the contributions of major historians and schools of historical ~~through~~ thought from Herodotus ancient times to the present. Prerequisite: Senior and graduate level history majors. May not be substituted for any other course without written permission from the department chair.

Prerequisite: Graduate or Senior standing.

Response Required: New course will be part of major minor as a required or elective course

Response Required: New course will introduce , reinforce , or apply concepts

Justification: These changes reflect a more updated and flexible definition of this foundational course for graduate students to align with the best practices of our discipline nationally.
