Social Studies

Students will complete twenty-one (21) semester credit hours of coursework in Education courses. Courses for the teaching specialization will be defined by the respective college. For further information, students may contact the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences or the University Registrar.

EDUCATOR PREPARATION PROGRAMS

The College of Education Educator Preparation Programs are rated by the State Board for Educator Certification. Accreditation status is based on accountability standards as established by the Texas Education Agency.

Most recent Title II accountability data is available at the following website: http://title2.ed.gov/View.asp. Additional information is available upon request from the Teacher Certification Office.

Students may choose to work toward certification at the following levels: (1) Early Childhood through Grade 6, (2) Grades 4-8 Middle School; (3) Grades 7-12, Secondary; and (3) All-level. Students will complete, as part of their requirements, three Blocks of study. These Blocks - designated as Blocks I, II, and III - will be completed sequentially in the field and have unique admission related requirements.

BLOCK COURSEWORK

Once students are admitted into the College of Education, they may enroll in Blocks consisting of the Education courses required for teacher certification at the level they are preparing to teach. There are three Blocks which students must complete. These are described below for each certification level.

The Standard Secondary School Certificate (78th-12th Grades)

Students working toward secondary teacher certification (grades 78-12) will specialize in a teaching field, following an Option I degree plan. Option I requires the completion of a minimum of thirty-six (36) semester credit hours in one academic field and twelve (12) semester credit hours of coursework in a supporting field. Students specializing in a Composite Teaching Field will follow an Option IV degree plan. Option IV consists of a minimum of forty-eight (48) semester credit hours in a composite teaching field. All students working toward secondary teacher certification will complete twenty-one (21) semester credit hours of Education coursework. Courses for the teaching specialization are defined by the respective college. Students should consult with an advisor in the appropriate college to determine the options and requirements for their academic field.
