HIST 2321  World Civilization to 1648. Eastern Civilizations. Three semester hours. (SP)

A study of the ancient civilizations of India, China, Japan, Egypt, Mesopotamia, Greece, the Roman Republic and Empire, the Barbarian West, Feudalism and the Rise of Feudal Monarchy, the Renaissance and Reformation, the Expansion of Europe, and the Age of Louis XIV. GEOG 1303 is used as a complementary subject and is suggested as an elective.

This course provides a study of Eastern civilizations, including those of Africa, Asia, and regions of the Middle East.

Justification: This change rationalizes the world civilization sequence, bringing the course description into closer alignment with what is actually taught and complementing the expertise and strengths of the history unit.
