Number HIST 3395 Title Contemporary South Asia SCH 3

Description Contemporary South Asia (India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Bhutan, Nepal, and the Maldives) contains a diversity of languages, cultures, religions and histories. It is also one of the most densely populated regions of the world. Using a thematic approach to study modern South Asia, this course places this region into historical, political, and socio-economic contexts across the dividing line of empires and nation-states.

Justification: These changes reflect a more updated, flexible, and realistic definition of and approach to this course to align with the best practices of our discipline nationally as well as additions to the history faculty.
