EDDP 4324
Teaching Diverse Student Populations
Three semester hours.
This course focuses on developing knowledge of how student diversity affects and influences instruction. Strategies for promoting equity and inclusion are emphasized. Preservice teachers will be engaged in field activities required of the Block II field experience. This course is designated as a Writing-Intensive (WIN) course where writing will play a central role in the learning process and grades earned on written work will constitute a significant portion of the grade for the course. 60% or more of the course grade will be devoted to the evaluation of written work, including writing assignments, research projects, and exams. Students must earn a grade of "C" or better to successfully complete the course. Prerequisite: Admission to the College of Education, completion of Block I, 2.7 overall grade point average, and a 2.7 grade average in the area of specialization. Corequisite: Must be taken with EDCI 3304.

EDCI 3224
Teaching in Diverse Settings
Two semester hours
This course focuses on socio-cultural and economic factors that influence teaching, learning, and school success. Strategies for promoting educational equity and inclusion are emphasized. Candidates engage in a variety of field-based experiences. Students will apply for admission to the College of Education during this course. Prerequisites: Successful completion of EDCI 1102 and 2210 and a minimum of a 2.7 TAMU GPA.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. The candidate identifies the socio-cultural and economic factors that influence teaching, learning, and school success.

2. The candidate articulates strategies for promoting educational equity and inclusion, including respect and rapport, with all learners.
3. The candidate examines his or her personal biases and belief systems related to student diversity.

Justification: Based on data, including from the Texas Education Agency (TEA) and program reviews, in order to better prepare the students we developed a professional education core for all education majors. By aligning the PPR Standards, Domains, and Competencies with the courses, we can ensure that the PPR standards are being addressed.
