MINOR IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

MINOR CURRICULUM - POLITICAL SCIENCE

18 SCH

Required courses:

PSCI 3305 or 3310 Government&Politics of Europe or Studies in Comparative Politics
PSCI 3313 or 3314 Classical and Medieval Political Philosophy or Modern Political Philosophy
PSCI 3320 or 4312 or 4313 or 4320 Congress and the Presidency or The Constitution and Criminal Procedure or The Constitution and Governmental Powers or Political System of the United States of America
PSCI 4335 or 4340 International Politics or American Foreign Policy

Six hours chosen from:

Any 3000 or 4000- level PSCI electives.

Justification: Political Science is adding two new American Politics courses to its catalog, PSCI 4312 The Constitution and Criminal Procedure and PSCI 4313 The Constitution and Governmental Powers [assuming course additions are approved], and this fits to fill the upper division “American” requirement. This will give PSCI minors a bit more flexibility in their program.
