THAR 4313. Special Topics in Theatre Arts

In depth study of a specific area of theatre arts. May be repeated for credit when the topic changes. Rehearsals outside of class may be required. Prerequisite: THAR 1310 or THAR 1351 or Sophomore Level Standing.

Course Prefix: THAR
Number: 4313
Title: Special Topics in Theatre Arts

Student Learning Outcomes:
1. demonstrate an understanding of basic theatre terminology.
2. understand the collaborative nature of theatre art and the many jobs required to develop a theatre production from the playwright’s page to the stage.
3. incorporate appropriate terminology into a written analysis of a theatre performance.
4. develop skills in determining the aesthetic values in the production aspects of a play, and critical skills in evaluating performances.
5. identify the relationship between particular theatre movements and political, religious, and social movements.

SCH Value: 3 hrs.
Prerequisite: THAR 1310 or THAR 1351 or Sophomore Level Standing.

Justification: We are adding one word to the title. We are also changing the prerequisite to better accommodate students needing upper division electives and also removing a course prerequisite that will no longer be in our course listings.
