KINE 3305 Teaching Physical Education Teaching Physical Education in Elementary Schools
Three semester hours

This course will prepare the student to teach a variety of physical education activities including, but not limited to, volleyball, archery, basketball and soccer. To earn credit, this course must be completed with a "C" or better.

This course prepares physical education teachers to teach in elementary school settings, including the application of fundamental principles of human motor development, physical fitness, manipulative skills, and rhythmical activities with children. Prerequisite: Admitted to and in good standing in the College of Education or department approval.

The candidate:
1.) Demonstrates key elements in combinations of locomotor skills, demonstrations of agility and balance, dance steps and sequences, and movement sequences that combine traveling, rolling, balancing, and weight transfer.
2.) Analyzes appropriate sequencing of motor skills based on characteristics of learners.
3.) Develops movement concepts (e.g., space direction, level) and principles (e.g., absorption of force).
4.) Implements activities that promote student awareness of fitness concepts.

Justification:
Since candidates for this program are certified from Early Childhood-12th grade two pedagogy courses in KINE are part of the new degree program. This course prepares the future physical education teacher for the elementary school setting.
