EDCI 4325 Assessment & Instruction for ESL. Three semester hours.
This course introduces different assessments and instructional practices used with ESL students.
Diagnostic and formal assessments for the ESL student at various grade levels will be examined.
Instructional practices in response to informal assessments will be practiced.

Prerequisites: EDCI 3302, Admitted to and in good standing in the College of Education.

Justification:
This course is a required course in a sequence of three courses designed to prepare teacher candidates in any TAMIU program looking to add the Texas English as a Second Language (ESL) credential to their initial teaching license.

If new, provide Course Prefix, Number, Title, Measurable Student Learning Outcomes, SCH Value, Description, prerequisite, and lecture/lab hours if applicable. If in current online catalog, provide change and attach text with changes in red and provide a brief justification.

1. The student designs informal and formal assessments based on program goals and the needs of ESL students.

2. The student adjusts instructional practice based on diagnostic, informal, and formal assessments.

3. The student uses instructional delivery practices that are effective in helping ESL students reach their English language and content area learning goals.
