EDUC EDYC 1308 (TECA 1303) Parenting Skills Family Involvement and Advocacy

Three semester hours. (SP)

An in-depth exploration of child-rearing parenting practices and family systems, with an emphasis on the role that early care and education programs and other community support services play in strengthening families. Examines all aspects of family life, including social, cultural, economic, and personal problems issues confronting parents families. Special Emphasis will be given to identifying healthy parent family-child interaction patterns. Candidates will be introduced to the important role early childhood professionals play as advocates for children and families.

Justification. Change course prefix for inclusion in the proposed degree and major in Early Learning. The proposed Early Learning program, unlike the previous Early Childhood program, does not lead to teacher certification. The course description is revised to more clearly address family involvement and support, and advocacy for children and families.

If new, provide Course Prefix, Number, Title, Measurable Student Learning Outcomes, SCH Value, Description, prerequisite, and lecture/lab hours if applicable. If in current online catalog, provide change and attach text with changes in red and provide a brief justification.
