EDYC 3342 Child Guidance Strategies
Three credits

This course provides an introduction to guidance strategies for promoting prosocial behaviors with individuals and groups of young children. Emphasis is on positive guidance principles and techniques, family involvement, and cultural and exceptionality influences. Prerequisites: EDYC 1304, 1308, and 2324, Admission to and in good standing in the College of Education.

~~SLOs:~~ CLOs
1. The candidate applies developmentally and individually appropriate child guidance strategies.
2. The candidate explores research on best practices in child guidance strategies and social environments for young children.
3. The candidate applies knowledge of and shows an appreciation for the influences of physical and social environment, family, culture, and individual differences on child behaviors in group settings.

Justification:
This course is a required course in the new Early Learning program (Non-Certification). The EDYC prefix ("young children") is used for all courses in the major. This course is a foundational course that introduces best practices in child guidance, and how to design and promote developmentally appropriate prosocial behaviors in early childhood programs.
