KINE 2224 Team and Individual Sports

Two semester hours

This course will provide students with the opportunity to participate in and teach a variety of team and individual sports. The course will introduce students to the idea of activity modification and will emphasize the tactical games approach to teaching sports.

Candidate Learning Outcomes:

1. Candidate will create activities and game play modifications to enhance learning opportunities for all students.
2. Candidate will demonstrate the ability to teach team and individual sports.
3. Candidate will describe rules, skills, and tactics associated with various team and individual sports.

Justification:

Teacher candidates need to develop pedagogical and content knowledge in a variety of team and individual sports to successfully teach students in K-12 physical education. This course will give teacher candidates the opportunity to participate in and teach a variety of team and individual sports from a non-traditional approach. The tactical games approach will provide an understanding to teacher candidates on the importance of activity and gameplay modification, along with helping candidates develop skills and tactics needed for successful game play in team and individual sports.
