Intended Educational (Student) Outcome:

NOTE: There should be one form for each intended outcome listed. The intended outcome should be restated in the box immediately below and the intended outcome number entered in the blank spaces.

1. Students should demonstrate a basic understanding of the concepts included in the COBA common body of knowledge.

First Means of Assessment for Outcome Identified Above:

1a. Means of Program Assessment & Criteria for Success:

The undergraduate business test produced and graded by the Educational Testing Service will be used to determine mastery of the common core. The test will be administered as part of a senior level capstone class. The assessment indicators used will be accounting, economics, management, quantitative business analysis, finance, marketing, legal and social environment, and international issues. Success will be 70% attainment overall (average of all student scores for the topic) with no area being below 50% attainment.

1a. Summary of Assessment Data Collected:

The mean score for the 17 students taking the examination was 134.7 out of a possible 200 producing an attainment of 67.4%. The assessment indicators are as follows:

Accounting	27.2%
Economics	31.5%
Management	35.9%
Quantitative Business Analysis	34.0%
Finance	25.8%
Marketing	41.6%
Legal and Social Environment	36.3%
International Issues	33.5%

1a. Use of Results to Improve Instructional Program:

This information will be distributed to the departmental faculty for curriculum discussions during the Fall 2003 semester.

First Means of Assessment for Outcome Identified Above:

2a. Means of Program Assessment & Criteria for Success:

Students must complete a COBA committee designed and graded writing assignment demonstrating competency in spelling, capitalization, and punctuation. Success is 70% attainment in each area (average of all students scores for the topic) with no area being below 50% attainment.

2a. Summary of Assessment Data Collected:

One hundred final examination essays were selected from three sections of the business communication course. From this group, faculty read and scored a random selection of twenty papers. No spelling errors were evident because of the use of spell checker software. No capitalization errors were evident because of the self-correcting nature of Word and Word Perfect. Three punctuation errors were found, involving the omission of commas.

2a. Use of Results to Improve Instructional Program:

This information will be distributed to the departmental faculty for curriculum discussions during the Fall 2003 semester. It is anticipated that the method of measuring performance will be changed next semester.
