Texas A&M International University
WIN Contract for
Non-Writing Intensive Courses

Student: ____________________________________________ Major: __________________________

Last First MI

CWID: __________________________ Cell Phone #: __________________________ Semester & Year: __________________________

Professor: __________________________________________ Course Title: __________________________

CRN#: __________________________ Course Prefix and Section #: __________________________

Justification for WIN-Contract. Student’s explanation for why a WIN-Contract is necessary:

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

Signature of Student __________________________ Date __________________________

The supervising professor is responsible for providing the Course Syllabus with WIN criteria and the accompanying WIN-Syllabus Checklist with this form before forwarding for approvals. (End-of-Course materials are also required, as per the WIN initiative.)

Signature of Supervising Professor __________________________ Date __________________________

Signature of Department/Division Chair __________________________ Date __________________________

Signature of Write On, TAMIU! Co-Chair __________________________ Date __________________________

Signature of Dean __________________________ Date __________________________

Signature of Provost* __________________________ Date __________________________

*Note: The Provost’s office should forward the completed form to the Office of Institutional Effectiveness & Planning for submission to the University Registrar.