Part A: Mission

Institutional Mission

Texas A&M International University, a Member of The Texas A&M University System, is committed to the preparation of students for leadership roles in their chosen profession and in increasingly complex, culturally diverse state, national, and global society ... Through instruction, faculty and student research, and public service, Texas A&M International University is a strategic point of delivery for well-defined programs and services that improve the quality of life for citizens of the border region, the State of Texas, and national and international communities.

Academic Program/Administrative/Educational Support Unit Mission

The Texas A&M International University Intercollegiate Athletics program exists for the growth and development of students at Texas A&M International University. Intercollegiate athletics, operating under the principles of fair play and amateurism, provide equal opportunity for talented students to participate in a nationally competitive sports program that is values-based and educationally sound.

Part E: Future Planning

Describe three goals to pursue in the coming year.

1. The Athletics Department will comply with NCAA Division II standards to become an active member of this division in three years, instead of the required four years.
2. The Athletics Department will develop a web site with information about our program including coaches information, game schedules, NCAA rules, and other vital information.
3. The Athletic Department will develop a plan that all administrators, coaches and student-athletes participate in community related activities e.g., visiting hospitals, helping in habitat for humanity, reading at our local elementary schools, etc..

How have the data collected from assessments this year influenced the goals above?
Once data is collected in June 2007, the athletic department will implement various procedures to better meet the needs of our student-athletes.
