

Need to buy books?

Students who are receiving financial aid can charge their books at the bookstore.

Here's how it works:

Books and supplies can be charged to your student account at the University bookstore.

This service is only available in person, you cannot charge against your account online.

What you need to know:

- You must have a complete financial aid folder. You can view your folder status and account information on Uconnect.
- You must be registered for classes.
- The amount of money you have been awarded must exceed your total tuition and fee charges. Your credit limit is determined by subtracting your tuition and fee charges from your financial aid awards for the semester. The maximum allowable credit limit is $1,500.
- Financial aid may not be immediately available. It takes approximately 24 hours for the bookstore system to be updated once your folder is complete or you register for classes.
- By charging your books and supplies on account you agree to adhere to the policies and procedures of TAMIU's Office of Financial Aid, Business Office and Follett Bookstore. These policies include, but are not limited to, refunds, returns and exchanges.
