Dear Dr. Keck:

This is to confirm that at its April 23, 1999 meeting, the Coordinating Board approved the request from Texas A&M International University to add planning authority to its Table of Programs for doctoral-level International Business. The Board also approved TAMIU's revised Mission Statement.

Enclosed are the revised Mission Statement and Table of Programs. We wish you every success in planning for the future.

Cordially,

MISSION STATEMENT

INSTITUTION: Texas A&M International University

APB: January 27, 1989

APB: October 28, 1994

APB: April 23, 1999

Texas A&M International University, a member of The Texas A&M University System, is committed to the preparation of students for leadership roles in their chosen profession and in an increasingly complex, culturally diverse state, national, and global society. The university provides students with a learning environment anchored by the highest quality programs built on a solid academic foundation in the liberal arts and natural sciences. To fulfill its mission, the university offers baccalaureate and masters programs in the arts; humanities; business; education; physical, biological, and social sciences; and health professions, with authority for select doctoral programs. Programs focus on developing strong undergraduate and graduate offerings and a progressive agenda for global study and understanding across all disciplines.

Through instruction, faculty and student research, and public service, Texas A&M International University is a strategic point of delivery for well-defined programs and services that improve the quality of life for citizens of the border region, the State of Texas, and national and international communities.
