Description:
AP Spanish Language and Culture Course
The course will provide teachers with information to help students be successful when taking the Advanced Placement Examination. The course will address the different aspects of the New Spanish Language and Culture Advanced Placement Exam and its components. To help teachers become familiar with the exam, there will be a simulated reading of the year’s exam and an explanation of the grading rubrics. Teaching activities and suggestions will be presented and shared. Emphasis will be given to the written and reading portions of the exam. Due to the new course curriculum and required audit for all teachers, sample course syllabus and course description will be discussed to help with the audit process. Ideas for integration of vertical teaming will also be addressed. Participants will be asked to share successful classroom experiences and activities, to share their current syllabus and resource materials as well as, favorite internet resources.
