Biography:
Penny Rosas, an educator for over 25 years, has been a College Board consultant and exam reader for over ten years. Receiving her undergraduate degree from Pan American University and her M.Ed. from University of Texas—Pan American, both of Edinburg, Texas, Penny has taught junior high school through college history classes and finally found her true calling with high school juniors. Teaching high school students and working with educators are her passions. Celebrating 34 years of marriage, enjoying her grandsons, reaping the benefits of an empty nest, Penny loves reading on her brand new Kindle Fire.
