Learning Outcomes:
In this course we will focus on the development of skills to prepare students for success in AP courses. We will explore techniques and best practices for teaching Pre AP social studies, and participants should return to their campuses with activities and ideas, which can be comfortably incorporated.

Description:
The week will be spent exploring techniques and best practices for teaching Pre AP social studies. Please bring your favorite lesson to share with the group. Topics to be covered will vary and be as fluid as possible to suit the needs of the participants. I believe in hands-on experiential learning, so please come prepared to participate. This will NOT be a week of sitting quietly, listening to me.
