Announcement of Thesis Proposal Defense

College of Education
Department of Professional Programs

You are cordially invited to attend a

THESIS PROPOSAL DEFENSE

HISPANIC STUDENT PERCEPTIONS OF COLLEGE READINESS.

Due to the ongoing growth of the Hispanic population in Texas, educators have an obligation to prepare Hispanic students for college coursework in order to produce a viable workforce in Texas. The researcher will survey high school seniors and college freshmen regarding their perceptions of their preparation for college coursework. The researcher hypothesizes that many Hispanic high school students enter colleges and universities inadequately prepared for college work.

Thursday, June 18, 2015

4:00 p.m.

Killam Library 420

Dr. Lourdes Viloria, Chair
Dr. Stephen Benigno, Member
Dr. Conchita Hickey, Member
Dr. Alfredo Ramirez, Jr., Member

In Partial Fulfillment of the Requirement for the Degree

Master of Science

by

Miranda De La Graza

The mission of the College of Education is to prepare highly effective, culturally competent educational and clinical professionals who are equipped to assume leadership roles in a global society.