Responsibilities and Signature

Rules of Conduct: It is the responsibility of the Exchange Visitor (EV) student to observe all regulations governing their visa status as set forth by the U.S. government and rules of conduct as set forth by Texas A&M International University. Failure to maintain these standards is subject to review by the J visa Responsible Officer or Alternate Responsible Officer and/or Associate VP for Student Affairs. Serious misconduct can result in a required to return to the home country without completion of course work, credit or grades.

Course Availability: The availability of courses is subject to change each term. The EV student agrees to work with his/her advisor to determine possible classes that can be taken in the event listed courses are unavailable. The Office of Student Affairs cannot ensure availability of courses listed in the University Catalog.

Health Insurance: EV students will automatically be charged a fee per semester for the premium cost of the Texas A&M University (TAMU) System International Students insurance plan. Alternate insurance plans will not be accepted.

Bacterial Meningitis Immunization Record: EV students who will reside in campus housing must submit official evidence of bacterial meningitis vaccination prior to moving into campus housing to Student Health Services.

Mandatory Orientation: It is the responsibility of the EV student to attend the TAMIU New International Student Orientation.

Financial Responsibility: it is the responsibility of the EV student to secure and provide necessary funds prior to departure from their home.

Address Update: It is the responsibility of the EV student to give TAMIU and Homeland Security updated contact information. Good standing may be delayed or lost if the information on file is incorrect.

I certify that the information on this application is complete and correct. EV students will be enrolled as non-degree seeking transient students. I understand and accept responsibilities as an exchange student.
