

THESIS GUIDELINES SPECIFIC TO M.A. THESES WRITTEN IN SPANISH

1. The Title Page and the Approval Page will follow the format of the sample pages in the Thesis Manual.
2. The abstract will appear in both Spanish and English; Spanish and English versions will have identical page numbers. Abstract will come first, then Resumen.
3. The dedication may be in English or Spanish or both. Dedication is limited to one page.
4. Acknowledgments will appear in English, with the option of a Spanish version as well. Spanish and English versions will have identical page numbers. Acknowledgments will come first, then Agradecimientos.
5. Ordering of contents (listing of preliminary pages in the Table of Contents is optional)
 - Abstract (page number iii)
 - Resumen (page number iii)
 - Dedication (optional)
 - Acknowledgments
 - Agradecimientos
 - etc.
6. The vita will be in English or a combination of English and Spanish. Vita is limited to one page.
7. Endnotes may appear at the end of each chapter, numbered consecutively within each chapter.
8. There will be one overall reference section after the last chapter. PMLA is usually the journal model, but other journals are acceptable.
9. Thesis Manual requirements will be followed for all other requirements.