

Texas A&M International University

Lamar Bruni Vergara & Guillermo Benavides Z Academic Conference

Call for Papers

Graduate and undergraduate students at Texas A&M International University are invited to present research projects to a TAMIU audience on April 19-20, 2012.

Interested students and student-faculty collaborators should submit a proposal with the following information:

- Student's name (or student/faculty collaborator names), contact information, academic rank (senior, junior, etc.) and major/degree program
- Professor's name, semester, and course for which the project was originally completed. (If the project was not part of the course work, please provide the name of the faculty mentor/ student's research adviser who was consulted when preparing the abstract/paper). Proposals that fail to list a faculty mentor/research advisor will not be accepted.
- Title and approximately 200-word abstract of paper, poster, research project, or performance, which will be used to determine Conference acceptance.

Cash prizes for best presentations

Online Submission deadline: March 19, 2012

www.tamiu.edu/gradschool/lbvconference/

\ Immediately after submitting you should receive a confirmation e-mail. If you don't, please contact lbvconference@tamiu.edu **

lbvconference2012

lbvconference@tamiu.edu