Mensaje de Luis Stagg, Texas A&M International University

Dear Dustdevil!

Your Fall 2026 Housing Contract is waiting for your signature! In order to reserve your on-campus housing space for the upcoming academic year we encourage you to sign and return your Housing Contract in a timely manner. In order to participate in Roommate & Room Selection you will need to first complete your Housing Contract.

Spaces are reserved via room selection on a first-come first-served basis, and with increased demand for on-campus housing we encourage all students to secure their space as soon as possible.

Here are a few reminders regarding the contracting process:

- Delay in signing your Housing Contract may result in being waitlisted for your preferred unit type or being unable to secure an on-campus housing space for the Fall 2026 Semester.
- The only way to secure your space is to sign your Housing Contract. Please remember that availability is first come, first served based upon room selection.
- Pricing is based upon your selected unit type at room selection, and will be reflected on your University semester bill.

Lastly, if you have any questions regarding the contracting process, please contact our office via email at housing@tamui.edu, or by telephone at (956)326-1300.

Sincerely,

The Office of Housing & Residence Life
