January's last week of basketball games were loaded with excitement as TAMIU Spirit Week came to a close. During the Women's game, the Coronation Ceremony was held for our first Mr. and Ms. TAMIU!

Mr. TAMIU Alvaro Aguirre and Ms. TAMIU Triana Gonzalez

Congratulations to both Alvaro Aguirre and Triana Gonzalez! Mr. and Ms. TAMIU are students who embody the TAMIU spirit, excel academically, and are involved in campus life as well as community service. Both have a commitment of service at various university functions and events throughout the year, and each will receive their Official TAMIU Ring!

Heartland Conference Championship Ring

During the Men's basketball game, a Ring Ceremony and unveiling of the Championship Banner were held for our Men's Soccer Team. The group is the first in school history to win a Heartland Conference Championship!

Juan Guajardo, '73

Mr. Guajardo taught for UISD for five years before entering the retail industry at Montgomery Ward in Laredo. He started as a department manager and moved up to Human Resources and Operations in a span of approximately 5 years. His career with was only beginning, as he has worked in Chile, Argentina, and Mexico for Home Depot as an International Corporate Trainer.

“While as a student at TAMIU (Texas A&I at Laredo), I was deeply influenced by the diversity of my professors. I learned that in order to succeed in a foreign country, one should respect each other cultures...I am deeply grateful for the education I received at TAMIU. I feel I led a very fruitful and rewarding career.”

Mr. Guajardo received a Bachelor's degree in Education with a minor in Spanish from Texas A&I at Laredo. He has four daughters, all of whom are working professional careers and is enjoying retirement.

Hafizul Islam, '01

Dr. Islam is living in Melbourne, Australia and is working for Price Waterhouse Coopers (PWC) as a Strategy Consultant.

He pursued his MS in Information Systems at TAMIU and his Doctorate degree in Marketing at the University of Melbourne.

Gina Cavazos, '08

Gina has been working at M.B. Lamar Middle School for LISD for the past three years. She currently teaches 6th grade Social Studies. Ms. Cavazos has been the proud sponsor of the Prancers dance team for three years and the Cheer squad for two. Under her direction, both teams have won numerous awards. She is happily married and the mother to a ten month old girl and a four year old boy!

She pursued her Bachelor's degree in History with a minor in Dance at TAMIU and is currently pursuing her Master of Arts in Education from Grand Canyon University.
