TEXAS A&M INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Academic Administrator Evaluation System

All academic administrators at Texas A&M International University are subject to evaluations both by their supervisors and subordinates with the exception of the president whose performance is reviewed by the Board of Regents according to the bye-laws articulated in the System manual of policies and procedures. Other administrators are evaluated according to the following format.

CHAIRS: Chairs are evaluated every three (3) years by the department faculty. All full-time faculty members, regardless of tenure status, who have a record of continuous service of two (2) or more years at TAMU, may participate in the evaluation. The office of the dean will conduct the evaluation. Chairs will be evaluated on an annual basis by the dean who will file the outcome with the Office of Human Resources.

DEANS: Deans are evaluated every (3) years by the faculty, including chairs, in their respective colleges. All full-time faculty members, regardless of tenure status, who have a record of continuous service of two (2) or more years at TAMU, may participate in the evaluation. The evaluation is conducted by the Office of the Provost/Vice-President for Academic Affairs. Deans will be evaluated by the Provost/VPAA on an annual basis and the outcome will be filed with the Office of Human Resources.

PROVOST: The Provost is evaluated every three (3) years by deans, chairs, and the directors of other instrumentalities operating under the Office of the Vice-President for Academic Affairs (Academic Enrichment Center, Continuing Education, Distance Education, etc.) who have served one (1) year or more in their current positions. The Office of the Associate Provost will conduct the evaluation and report the outcome to the president. The provost will be evaluated on an annual basis by the president who will file the outcome with the Office of Human Resources.
