ENGL 5363 Grant Writing. Three Semester Hours. (SP/SS-Even)

This course focuses on a genre of writing much in demand within professional environments (for example, business, law, education, and medicine). Ideally, participants will be required to identify and analyze a need within an organization, to research and articulate the need, to research and identify potential resources, to analyze the rhetorical situation, to provide necessary documentation, and to follow formatting requirements for the genre. Documents produced may include executive summaries, abstracts, statements of need, statements of methodology, project descriptions, and progress reports. Prerequisite: Graduate standing or permission from the instructor.

Rationale: This course is both necessary and appropriate for the M. A. track in rhetoric and composition. This course will also be useful to interested members of the university and Laredo community.

Student Outcomes:

1. Students will have experience writing a variety of grants and will produce a portfolio of completed drafts for grants.
2. Students will use a range of technology for all grant writing activities.
3. Students will produce a portfolio of notes and research germane to this field for future reference.
