UNIV 2301 Foundations of Leadership 3 sch Prerequisite Sophomore standing

This course introduces students to leadership styles and the multiple definitions of leadership relating to various cultural, professional, civic and social roles. Includes a service learning component. This course is an introductory overview of leadership which must be taken prior to taking other required courses to earn the Certificate in International Leadership.

Assessment of student learning outcomes will employ embedded questions in the final examination, written reaction to the service learning experience connected with the course. A pretest given at the beginning of the course forms the benchmark for assessment of the certificate program. Indirect measures of the course will include student questionnaires and service learning sponsor surveys.
