UNIV 4301 International Leadership Capstone 3 sch Prerequisite Completion of other requirements for Certificate in International Leadership.

This course explores leadership in an international context and builds on material from UNIV 2301. It includes interaction with guest speakers who serve as models of leadership within a variety of areas. Identification of leadership ability through introspection and self-understanding. This course is a capstone which will include assessment of student learning outcomes through a posttest linked to the pretest in UNIV 2301.

Assessment of student learning outcomes will employ embedded questions in the final examination and rubric-based analysis of a portfolio. Indirect measures of the course will include student questionnaires.
