~~A study of the Age of Reason and the Age of Enlightenment; the French Revolution and the Age of Napoleon; the Industrial Revolution; the unification of Italy and Germany; European imperialism; World War I; the triumph of communism in Russia; and the triumph of fascism in Italy and Germany; World War II; the Cold War; and the emergence of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. This course provides a study of western civilization including the ancient societies of Greece and Rome, feudal Europe, and the modern European nation states.

Justification: This change rationalizes the world civilization sequence, bringing the course description into closer alignment with what is actually taught and complementing the expertise and strengths of the history unit.
