KINE 3310 Teaching Physical Education in Secondary Schools

Three semester hours

Course Description: This course prepares physical education teachers to teach in the secondary school setting, including a variety of methods designed to improve students' fitness and performance, teamwork, and skill combinations in games and sports. Prerequisite: Admitted to and in good standing in the College of Education or department approval.

Program: Delete: Add: Change: Attach new/changed Program of Study description and 4-year plan. If in current online catalog, provide change and attach text with changes in red.

Program Learning Outcomes: Add: Change: Attach listing of program learning outcomes.

The candidate:

1. Applies rules, safety practices and conditioning programs for individual sports, team sports, dance sequences, and outdoor pursuits.
2. Demonstrates key elements of mature movement patterns.
3. Provides opportunities for students to pursue individual interests and refine various movement skills.
4. Exhibits a physically-active lifestyle and understands the relationship between physical activity and health throughout the life span.

5. Applies knowledge of the function of the body, learns to measure their own performance more accurately, and develop plans for improvement.

Justification: Since candidates for this program are certified from Early Childhood-12th grade, two pedagogy courses in KINE are part of the new degree program. This course prepares the future physical education teacher for the secondary school setting.
