KINE 2316 Health and Movement ~~Motor Development and Learning~~

~~This course introduces the candidate to the development and process of motor skill acquisition in children and methods to provide movement and health practices in the classroom.~~

This course introduces the candidate to the development and process of motor skill acquisition in students and methods to promote movement in the classroom.

The candidate:

1. Demonstrates activities that promote development of locomotor, non-locomotor, body control, manipulative, and rhythmic skills.
2. Applies knowledge of how physical developmental changes influence motor skill acquisition and performance.
3. Demonstrates basic motor skills and movement patterns with competence.
4. Applies contemporary physical education models and best practice guidelines to plan and implement learning opportunities that are appropriate to students' developmental needs and characteristics.

Justification:

Since candidates for this program are certified from Early Childhood-12th grade, this course prepares the future physical education teachers for teaching motor skills in the school setting.
