Special Topics in Secondary Reading: Strategies for Teaching Reading in the Secondary School
Three semester hours. (SP)
The course will focus on the integration of reading and language arts in the content areas to develop general and specialized vocabularies; and reading and language arts skills, including critical thinking, research, and study skills. Also emphasized will be methods for teaching reading and content to diverse school populations, especially ESL students. Prerequisites: Admitted to and in good standing in the College of Education or department approval. Admission to the College of Education and 2.7 overall grade point average.
The Texas Education Agency (TEA) has increased the GPA requirement for entrance to teacher certification programs to 2.75, effective September of 2014. To avoid having to submit multip UCC documents each time the GPA is altered, it was decided to include a standard statement. "Admitted to and in good standing" implies that the student is maintaining the required GPA
