Option to Graduate Without Completing the Student Teaching Semester

COED candidates in their culminating semester who choose a non-certification option may supplant/substitute 42 9 credits from a pool of specified courses in lieu of completing their student teaching requirement for certification. By doing so candidates electing this route may graduate in the degree program and will not be recommended for certification, as so noted on transcripts.

Candidates choosing this route must:

- be in the culminating semester of their degree program;
- be in good standing in the College of Education by having a TAMU 2.75 GPA or higher and a 2.75 or higher GPA in the major;
- complete all degree plan courses with a grade of "C" or better (including coursework completed in the Core Curriculum and all courses that are approved as substitutions for courses required on the degree plan);
- complete all program requirements except student teaching plus one course remaining;
- register for EDCI 4399, Issues in Curriculum and Instruction;

- register for nine (9) six (6) additional credit hours from a selected pool of courses approved by the College for this culminating term;
- forfeit eligibility to obtain approval by the College of Education to sit for any TExES exams as an undergraduate program finisher; and
- sign a statement of agreement acknowledgement noting such.
