Remove warning as an option. Graduate Council voted and approved the removal, as a warning is not a sufficient "punishment"

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATE DEGREES

Scholastic Deficiency: If either of a student's cumulative GPA or the GPA for courses listed on the degree plan falls below the minimum of 3.000 he or she will be considered to be scholastically deficient. If the minimum GPA is not attained by the end of next semester of enrollment, the student will be dropped from graduate studies. Students who receive a D, F or more than one C for coursework listed on their degree plan will also be dropped from graduate studies. The procedures for dismissal and expulsion are explained in the TAMU Student Handbook.

Procedures for Dismissal:

In the event a graduate student becomes scholastically deficient, he or she may be subject to one of the following actions, initiated by a recommendation from the student's department or graduate advisory committee (listed in order of increasing severity):

- ~~1. Warned of scholastic deficiency; or~~
- 1 ~~2.~~ Permitted to continue in the program on scholastic probation; or
- 2 ~~3.~~ Suspended from the university—because of scholastic deficiency; or separated from the university because of scholastic deficiency by one of the following actions:
  - Suspension: Separation of the student from the university for a definite period of time. The student is not guaranteed readmission at the end of this period of time. The student is guaranteed a review of the case and a decision regarding eligibility for readmission.
  - Dismissal: Separation of the student from the university for an indefinite period of time. Readmission to the university may be possible in the future, but no specific time for a decision is established.
  - Expulsion: Permanent separation of the student from the university for scholastic deficiency. The student is not eligible for readmission to the university. Expulsion can occur following a ruling by the Graduate Appeals Panel that does not support the student's appeal.
