EDAM 5325

Instructional Leadership Development Advancing Educational Leadership

Three semester hours.

This course will includes a general survey of learning theories and practices in relation to teacher behavior in the classroom. ~~Instructional Leadership Development (ILD)~~ Advancing Educational Leadership training required of practicing school administrators is offered in the course content. Prerequisites: EDAM 5301 and EDAM 5320. Pre or co-requisite: EDGR 5320. Evaluation of performance in this course is on CR/NC basis.

Justification

The Texas Administrative Code requires all candidates earning a school principal's certificate to hold teacher appraisal qualifications. One of those requirements is for candidates to complete the State of Texas's Advancing Educational Leadership (AEL) training and successfully earn the certification before candidates are eligible to appraise teachers in the field of practice with the state's teacher appraisal system.

As such, this course name change is required because the State of Texas has eliminated Instructional Leadership Development training and has now adopted Advancing Educational Leadership training as the new state training to fulfill campus administrator appraisal requirements.
