HIST 3350U. S. Historical Geography*

Three semester hours. (FL)

A survey of the changing geography of the United States including initial exploration, European perceptions of North America, diffusion and geographical expansion of the United States to the Pacific, geographical factors underlying the urbanization and industrialization of the nation, and recent population shifts. Prerequisite: Six hours of history. (Cross-listed with GEOG 3350)

HIST 3351World History and Geography*

Three semester hours. (FL-Odd)

A survey of world history focusing on the influence of geography on the course of history. The course includes the development of cartography, the spread of geographical knowledge, and the history of exploration. Prerequisite: Six hours of history and/or political science. (Cross-listed with GEOG 3351)

HIST 3352Latin American Historical Geography*

Three semester hours. (FL-Even)

A survey of the changing cultural geography of Latin America including pre-Colombian landscapes, early European settlement, migration, and the evolving economic integration into the world economy. Geographical and environmental factors underlying twentieth-century agricultural and urban problems of Latin America are considered. Prerequisite: Six hours of History and/or Geography, or consent of instructor. (Cross-listed with GEOG 3352)

Justification:

Students will have more scheduling flexibility with an option to take any given GEOG class under a revised degree plan rather than specified ones that have HIST cross-listings.
