Course Prefix: HIST

Number: 3340

Title: Cultural History

Measurable Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Communicate a clear historical argument based upon evaluations of a region's or society's cultural activities or artifacts
2. Analyze the significance and meaning of primary documents relating to a region's or society's cultural beliefs or activities
3. Synthesize historiographical perspectives on a region's or society's cultural history

SCH Value: 3

Description: This course examines the historical development, purpose, and influence of cultural activities, beliefs, and expressions found in a specific region or society.

Prerequisite: HIST 1301 and 1302

Justification: This course gives students the opportunity to examine in-depth the historical reasons why nations and regions around the world act and believe in various ways. This course will thus contribute to TAMU's "International" initiatives and be especially valuable for Study Abroad programs.
