SCH

Fall First-Day Semester Credit Hour Trends (2019–2025)

The percent change graph illustrates how much enrollment grew or declined compared to the previous fall. Fall 2020 and Fall 2021 showed declines in both first-day headcount and semester credit hours. Beginning in Fall 2022, however, these measures started to increase, with Fall 2025 showing the strongest recovery of the five-year period.
